

First Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Ambassador of the State of Palestine in Belgrade Mohammed Nabhan, in the context of a regular exchange of views.

In a substantive talk, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic and Ambassador of the State of Palestine Mohammed Nabhan expressed great pleasure at the current level of bilateral relations between the two countries and a readiness to further develop them in the upcoming period, in line with their mutual interests.

The collocutors stressed, in particular, the urgency of holding a session of the Joint Committee, the need to promote visa policies and increase the number of scholarships for Palestinian students in the context of the project "The World in Serbia".