

Minister Dacic receives a farewell call from Ambassador of Slovenia

Tuesday, 18 September 2018.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic has received today a farewell call from the Ambassador of Slovenia, Mr. Vladimir Gasparic.

Minister Dacic thanked Ambassador Gasparic for an excellent cooperation during his tenure in Belgrade and underlined that Serbia and Slovenia had very friendly relations that reached the highest level in recent history. He also pointed out that the practice of holding joint sessions of the two governments as well as the visits both on high and top levels reflected the dynamic of the bilateral cooperation. The same trend should be maintained during the mandate of the new government in the Republic of Slovenia.

Ambassador Gasparic thanked Minister Dacic for his warm reception and excellent cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and institutions of the Republic of Serbia, emphasizing that the bilateral relations were on a high level and that strong interest existed in their further promotion, particularly in the economic area. Ambassador Gasparic underscored that he was very glad about increased investments in both Serbia and Slovenia, with the annual growth trend and that it acted as a strong impetus for the overall cooperation between our two countries.
