

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic has received today Sir Alan Duncan, UK Minister of State for Europe and the Americas at the Foreign and Commonwealth Office .

The two collocutors discussed strengthening of bilateral relations between the Republic of Serbia and the United Kingdom, continuation of the European integration process of Serbia, relations in the region and the perspective of the Western Balkans as well as the current international issues.

Both sides agreed on the need to promote cooperation between the United Kingdom and the Republic of Serbia, particularly on the high level.

As regards the Kosovo and Metohija issue, they underlined the necessity for finding a durable peaceful solution that will take account of the interests of both peoples and promote stability in the entire region.

The UK Minister reiterated support by the official London to the EU integration process of Serbia and the readiness for the advancement of their bilateral relations.