

In the margins of the 73rd Session of the United Nations General Assembly, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met with Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Union of Comoros Mohamed El-Amine Souef.

In the talks, both officials found that the bilateral cooperation developed for the mutual benefit and that its enhancement followed after the visit by Minister Dacic to the Comoros earlier this year.

The collocutors also touched upon and exchanged views on the key processes in the context of international affairs.

The Serbian Foreign Minister informed the Comoros Minister about the key political and reform processes implemented in the Republic of Serbia.

The Foreign Affairs Minister of the Union of Comoros conveyed great interest of his country for Serbia's participation in development projects there.
