

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had a meeting today with Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia Prak Sokhonn, in the margins of the 73rd United Nations General Assembly Session.

The interlocutors stressed the two countries' traditionally good and friendly relations, adding that the potential for the development of economic cooperation was in evidence.

The Serbian Foreign Minister updated his Cambodian counterpart on the main political and economic developments in Serbia, and the reforms undertaken by the Serbian Government.

Minister Dacic was thankful for the principled position of Cambodia and for its non-recognition of unilateral acts contrary to the international legal system.

The collocutors agreed that the excellent political relations should result in an improved economic cooperation.
