

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had a meeting today with Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Suriname Yldiz Deborah Pollack-Beighle, in the margins of the 73rd Session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The two Ministers concluded that bilateral cooperation had risen significantly since the last year's UNGA Session and that many high-level visits had been exchanged.

The collocutors underlined that it was necessary to keep up the momentum of cooperation through the creation of a legal basis for the establishment of an applicable legal framework in all areas of mutual interest, with emphasis on economic cooperation.

Minister Ivica Dacic and Minister Yldiz Deborah Pollack-Beighle agreed on the joint activities to be undertaken at the international level, and on an exchange of trade delegations.
