

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today Mr. Mohammed K. M. Nabhan, Ambassador of the State of Palestine in Belgrade.

In the substantive talks, Minister Dacic and Ambassador Nabhan conveyed their pleasure at the level of relations between the two countries as well as their assessment that there was a scope for the further promotion of various modalities of cooperation in many spheres. The collocutors agreed to invest joint efforts to this end in the period ahead.