

Secretary General of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Veljko Odalovic delivered today certificates to junior diplomats from several countries attending a course devoted to foreign policy and cultural heritage of the Republic of Serbia organized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

During a week-long course, junior diplomats coming from a number of countries of South America, Africa and Asia were introduced to the foreign policy priorities of the Republic of Serbia and to the diplomatic history and cultural heritage of Serbia.

The course was held at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Diplomatic Academy.