

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had bilateral meetings with his colleagues, Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the OSCE participating States, in the margins of the 25th OSCE Ministerial Council in Milan.

The Minister had talks with Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Belarus Vladimir Makey and of Kazakhstan Kairat Abdrakhmanov, in which they discussed both the current situation in the OSCE area and the challenges facing the Organization. Minister Dacic underlined that Serbia continued to support all agreed OSCE formats established with the aim of resolving the open issues in the Organization.

Good and friendly bilateral relations were emphasized in the Minister's bilateral meetings with his colleagues from Belarus and Kazakhstan. Special attention was devoted to the enhancement of economic relations, especially in the implementation of the agreements reached at the highest level. Further cooperation in the framework of international organizations was also agreed on.
