

First Deputy Prime Minister/Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia Ivica Dacic talked to the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Hellenic Republic, Mr. Markos Bolaris, in the margins of the meeting of the High-Level Cooperation Council between the Republic of Serbia and the Hellenic Republic, which was held in Belgrade today.

In today's talks both sides discussed a number of issues of mutual interest and reached a high level of agreement. In a friendly and constructive atmosphere views were exchanged on concrete possibilities for the further promotion of cooperation between the two Foreign Ministries.

FDPM/MFA Dacic informed his collocutor about a series of negative unilateral actions taken by Prishtina, additionally hindering the continuation of the dialogue in the future.