

During his official visit to Guatemala, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic visited the headquarters of the Guatemala City Authorities.

The Mayor of the capital, Ricardo Quinonez, informed the Serbian Foreign Minister about the history and development plans for the City.

Minister Dacic thanked the Mayor for the assistance and support by the City authorities concerning the realization of the initiative to name one of the City streets after and in honour of the famous writer and Nobel Prize Winner Ivo Andric. He also told his collocutor that one of the streets in Belgrade would be named after the Guatemalan Nobel Prize Laureate Miguel Angel Asturias.

{youtube}NBsnC2L1vC8{/youtube}

{joomplucat:1617 limit=7|columns=4}