

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had a substantive meeting with Minister of Foreign and CARICOM Affairs of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago Dennis Moses, in the margins of the 8th ACS Summit of Heads of State or Government in Managua.

In an open and friendly conversation, the two Foreign Ministers underscored the importance of common positions regarding the respect of principles of international law and territorial integrity as the foundation of international relations based on equality and mutual respect of states. The interlocutors exchanged views and informed each other about all ongoing internal political processes, as well as about the activities pursued by the two countries internationally and regionally.

Ministers Dacic and Moses pointed out that it was necessary to further advance the bilateral relations in all areas in the mutual interest. To this end, they agreed on the need to exchange high- and highest-level visits and to conclude bilateral agreements in strategic areas of cooperation.
