

The exhibition "Ivo Andric – a Writer and/or a Diplomat" was officially opened in the Faculty of Law building at Humboldt University in Berlin. Professor Christian Foss, Head of the Department of Slavonic Studies at Humboldt University, Serbian Ambassador Ivo Viskovic and the author of the exhibition, curator of the Museum of the City of Belgrade Tatjana Koricanac spoke at the opening of the exhibition.

The opening of the exhibition and the cocktail party held to mark the occasion was attended by numerous guests – university professors, Ambassadors of Macedonia and Montenegro, and other representatives from the diplomatic corps of the countries of the region and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany, as well as journalists and representatives of the diaspora.

The exhibition will be open for public viewing until 18 July.