

An exhibition of the works of young artists Ivana Protic and Filip Jovanovic was opened at the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Rome, on 16 July 2013.

The opening was attended by a large number of visitors, among whom the representatives of the Serbian diaspora were the most numerous.

On 17 July 2013, the exhibits were also viewed by many guests from the military attaches corps attending the farewell cocktail in honor of the Military Attache of the Republic of Serbia B. Stanojevic.

Expressing their gratitude to Ambassador Ana Hrustanovic and the Embassy, young artists Ivana Protic and Filip Jovanovic presented their two paintings to the Embassy as a gift.
