

Serbian Poetry evening took place at Salzburg City Library, on 4 February. Poems written by the most famous Serbian authors from the "Former Angels" anthology were recited, while the compositions by Vlastimir Pericic and Dejan Despic made the musical intermezzo. Apart from the Library's director, Dr. Helmuth Windinger, students of the German language and literature, and the poet Marko Dinic, took part in the organization of the programme.

The poetry evening was attended by the Deputy Mayor of Salzburg, professors of the Faculties of Philology, numerous residents of Salzburg, and Serbian clubs' representatives.
