

The Serbian Cultural Center in Paris took part in the organization of an art colony in Paris for children from Serbia and for Serbian children from France, from 2 to 6 April.

During their stay in France, Serbian children were joined by their peers from the Parisian Supplementary School in the Serbian language. Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Paris Rajko Ristic and the President of the "Republic" of Montmartre Alain Coquard welcomed the children at Montmartre.