

The "Serbian Calvary" documentary was shown within "L'Europe autour de l'Europe" film festival at the Serbian Cultural Centre in Paris, on 2 April.

The documentary was done by Stanislav Krakov in 1931, and is considered to be one of the best documentary films made at the time of the Kingdom of Yugoslavia.

Aleksandar Erdeljanovic, Director of Jugoslovenska kinoteka, Film Archive of the Republic of Serbia, presented a joint project between the Serbian and French film archives - preparation of a documentary about relations between Serbia and France, which will be completed by the end of 2014.
