

Diplomatic missions accredited in the Republic of South Africa had the opportunity to promote cultural and other values of their countries, on the occasion of the ceremony marking the 20th anniversary of liberty and democracy in South Africa. The Embassy of the Republic of Serbia presented Serbian natural beauties, cultural, historical, sports and culinary excellence, and won on the occasion a prize and insignia of the Pretoria Executive Mayor K. Ramokgopa.

The Diplomatic Fair, where 65 countries presented themselves, was held on 25 October 2014 in Freedom Park in Pretoria.
