

The diplomatic Bazaar gathering 42 participants and approximately 4000 visitors was held in Tunis on Sunday, 30 November 2014. One of the most diversely supplied and best attended was the booth of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia which

, in addition to Serbian products, presented the country's touristic potential, brochures and publications of the Historical Museum of Serbia, Ethnographic Museum in Belgrade, Institute for the Protection of Cultural Monuments, Serbian Football Association and Red Star Football Club.