

Exhibition “Following the Paths of Roman Emperors in Serbia - Viminacium” opened at the prestigious premises of the Vittoriano Museum Complex in Rome, on 4 December 2014.

Author of the project Dr. Miomir Korac held a lecture “From Trajan to Justinian - Sites in Serbia related to Roman Emperors”, shortly before the opening of the exhibition, thus presenting the archaeological site of Viminacium to the large audience. The exhibition was opened by Marta Leonori, Secretary of Trade and Tourism of the City of Rome, and Ana Hrustanovic, Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to Italy.
