

Bern: Bust of Dr. Archibald Reiss officially unveiled

Tuesday, 06 October 2015.

Dr. Archibald Reiss's bust, authored by the academic sculptor Ljubisa Mancic, was officially unveiled on the premises of the Serbian Embassy in Bern, on 26 September 2015, within the event called "Serbian Culture Days in Switzerland", thanks to the financial support by the MFA Administration for Cooperation with the Diaspora and the Serbs in the Region. The founders' meeting of the Swiss-Serbian Friendship Society, bearing the name of this famous Swiss, was held on the occasion. The event lasted for ten days and was closed on Sunday, 27 September 2015, with concerts given by the "Princess Milica" culture and art society from Serbia and the "Kolo" culture and art society from Baden.
