

Buenos Aires: Inauguration of “Routes of Roman Emperors in Serbia” exhibition

Tuesday, 03 November 2015.

---

An exhibition titled Itinerarium Romanum Serbiae (Routes of Roman Emperors in Serbia) was inaugurated at the Culture Ministry of the City of Buenos Aires exhibition hall in Buenos Aires, on 31 October 2015, within the Museums Night event. The exhibition was opened by Prof. Dr. Miomir Korac, Director of the Serbian Archeological Institute, Maria Vittoria Alcaraz, Under-Secretary for Cultural Heritage at the Ministry of Culture of the Government of the City of Buenos Aires and Ms. Tatjana Conic, Chargé d'Affaires of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Argentina. The opening of the exhibition was attended by numerous representatives of the Diplomatic Corps, Argentinian institutions, the academia, the Serbian Diaspora and the Argentinian media. During the Museums Night event alone, the exhibition was visited by several thousand visitors.