

On January 7, 2016, Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in New Delhi Vladimir Marić, together with famous Serbian actors Nina Janković and Uroš Jakovljević, and biologist Milivoje Krvavac, gave 30 packages with school supplies to a kindergarten in Sri Lanka, as a donation from the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia. The funds necessary for the purchase of the packages were raised at the New Delhi humanitarian diplomatic bazaar, held in December last year. News about the donation of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia was posted on the official internet portal of the Sri Lankan Government.
