

On the occasion of celebrating the tenth anniversary of the "Falcon" company, the Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Cairo, Dragan Bisenic, was honoured for his contribution to developing the cooperation between Egypt and the Republic of Serbia in the area of humanitarian protection, and for raising awareness of solving migration and refugee problems in the region of the Middle East.

"Falcon" is the largest and most respectable Egyptian company, specializing in providing relief aid during natural disasters, humanitarian catastrophes, as well as in protecting property and people, wherein it closely cooperates with the Egyptian Ministry of Defence and the Ministry of Internal Affairs.