

On 13 May 2016, the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Tokyo hosted a one-hour concert given by Serbian flutist Andjela Bratic, accompanied by pianist Svetlana Dejanovic-Avramovic.

Pieces by Petar Stojanovic, Mozart, Shubert, Baccini, Massenet and Bizet were played. Among the prominent guests were M. Macuura, the Mayor of Hofy - Yamaguchi prefecture; T. Nagai, former Ambassador of Japan and President of the Japan-Serbia Association; renowned Japanese conductor M. Oikawa, wife of former Ambassador of Japan in the Republic of Serbia E. Tsunozaki, Japanese flutist H. Yoshikawa, etc.