

On 17 and 18 September, the ninth consecutive tournament of international and national horse races "National Gallop" was held at Heroes' Square in Budapest, in front of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia.

The contestant from Serbia came in fourth in the tournament finale. During the event, a promenade was organised along Andrassy Avenue, where foreign guests and hosts presented their towns, countries and national cuisines. On the joint stand of the Republic of Serbia and the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina, passers-by had an opportunity to become acquainted with a fraction of the cultural heritage and gastronomic abundance of our country.
