

The Diplomat, Hungarian edition of the magazine, published in its latest issue an article signed by the Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to Hungary, H.E. Rade Drobnac, in his capacity as the President of the Danube Commission.

The magazine appears once a month and deals with current topics from the fields of diplomacy, the Establishment and the social life in Hungary. In the article, Ambassador Drobnac wrote about the importance of the Danube, its history, beautiful scenery along its banks and about the work of the Danube Commission and its responsibilities. The whole article is available at: http://www.diplomatamagazin.hu/ftp/cgg4abg_d15-17.pdf