

In the exhibition hall of the Telefónica Foundation in Buenos Aires, on 5 October 2016, the exhibition "Nikola Tesla: Inventor of the 21st Century" was inaugurated in the presence of Dr Branimir Jovanovic, Director of Nikola Tesla Museum, Mr Federico Rava, Director of the Telefónica Foundation in Argentina and Ambassador of Serbia Ms. Jela Bacovic. In addition, a significant number of guests attended the event. The exhibition was prepared by the Telefónica Foundation in cooperation with Nikola Tesla Museum in Belgrade, and with the support of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Argentina. The Serbian community in Buenos Aires provided considerable assistance with the organization of the exhibition.

On the first day of the exhibition, in the Auditorium of the Telefónica Foundation, Director of Nikola Tesla Museum Dr Branimir Jovanovic held a conference on the subject "Nikola Tesla and the problem of human energy", in which the Argentinian audience showed a great interest. Dr Branimir Jovanovic delivered a lecture under the same title in the Argentine Council for International Relations (CARI). The exhibition will be on view by 4 February 2017.
