

On 21 October 2016, a promotional video by the National Tourism Organization of Serbia titled "The Danube in Serbia: 588 Impressions" was awarded a special prize at the International Tourism Film Festival held in Vila Nova de Gaia, Porto District.

The clip presents the Danube's 588 kilometre-long course through Serbia, its landscapes and cultural heritage which left a particularly good impression on the audiences. Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to Portugal Oliver Antic received the award on behalf of the laureate and addressed the attendants on the occasion.
