

An exhibition of photographs entitled "Belgrade – Buenos Aires" by Argentinian author Claudio Bagalia, which the councillors of Buenos Aires called an exhibition of cultural importance, was inaugurated on 31 October in the City Hall's memorial lobby.

The exhibition, to be on view until 11 November, was opened by the first Vice-President of the City Council, Carmen Polledo, Chair of PRO bloc of councillors Francisco Quintana, Serbian Ambassador to Argentina Jela Bacovic and by the author himself.

