

The Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Vienna helped the realization of the project "Me to be me" by the Fund for Social and Democratic Initiatives (FoSDI). A concert by Catherine Pejak & band was performed as part one of the project, in one of the most famous stage clubs in Vienna "Verein Reigen", on 11 November 2016, causing huge interest among the Austrian public.

Part two of the project included a number of segments: presentation of the documentary film "Aristophanes of Dnopolje", an exhibition of handicrafts and products made by women of Lika and two photo exhibitions "Lika women in the lens" and "My freedom".
