

The Italy-Serbia Association and the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Rome co-organized the launch of the Italian edition of Ljiljana Habjanović-Djurovic's book "Ana Maria loved me not" took place at the diplomatic club of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Italy, on 28 November.

On behalf of the Embassy of Serbia, participants were welcomed by Charge d'Affaires ad interim, Minister Counselor Tatjana Garcevic, while the event was moderated by President of the Italy-Serbia Association, former Italian Ambassador to Belgrade Riccardo Sessa. The event was attended by members of the diplomatic corps, scientific and cultural elite circles of Rome, as well as representatives of the Serbian academic diaspora.