

Organized by the Institute of Immunology based in Martin and "Gallery Babka" of Kovacica, under the sponsorship of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Slovakia and the Slovak Cultural Society, the exhibition "Naive Art of Serbia" was officially opened in the lobby of the central building of the Slovak Cultural Society in Martin, on 28 November.

Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Bratislava Shani Dermaku and Director of the Slovak Cultural Society Marian Tkac opened the exhibition in the presence of numerous guests, including representatives of local media.