

Counsellor at the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Ankara, Mr. Slobodan Radeka, held a lecture about Serbia, its potential and relations with Turkey, at Okyanus College.

After the very well attended lecture, primary and secondary school students at the above college had the opportunity to ask questions, expressing particular interest in cultural, historical and geographic connections between Serbia and Turkey.

