

In the packed hall of the Serbian Cultural Center in Paris, a musical evening "A Journey around the World – Serbia" was held, where our pianist Jasmina Kulagic presented two outstanding artists - Anna Mikulska, cello (Poland) and Philippe Argenty, piano (France), who performed as "Duo Fortecello". These two artists made the audience travel around the world.

This duo have already performed on many musical stages in France, Spain, Italy, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Norway, and are yet to perform in Poland, Germany and China.

Performances at the Cultural Center are an opportunity for foreign artists to get acquainted with the works of Serbian composers, which are a compulsory part of the program. These two artists were delighted to play the Serbian composer Dejan Despic and would include some of his opus on their next album.
