

Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Tehran, H.E. Mr. Dragan Todorovic, accompanied by a group of Serbian journalists, visited a number of media outlets and media-related state institutions, taking this opportunity to promote Serbia's foreign policy priorities as well as the importance of bilateral cooperation with Iran.

In an interview for the national news agency IRNA , which he visited together with the group of journalists from Serbia, he said that the decision of the Serbian Government to abolish visa requirements for the citizens of Iran would facilitate Iranian tourists and entrepreneurs visiting Serbia. Ambassador Todorovic spoke in favour of raising the level of economic relations between the two countries, including through the establishment of relevant committees.

In addition to IRNA, the Ambassador and journalists coming from several Serbian media outlets also visited the Iranian Ministry of Culture and the Parliament. In the meeting with Assistant Minister Entezami, the prospects for cooperation in the field of media were discussed.