

The Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Serbia and the Government of the Republic of Suriname on exemption from visa requirement for holders of national, diplomatic, service and official passports, signed in Paramaribu, on 10 February 2018, took effect on 16 September 2019.

Based on this Agreement, nationals of the Republic of Serbia and Republic of Suriname who are holders of ordinary, diplomatic, service and official passports, will have the right to enter into, transit through and stay on the territory of the other Party without visa not exceeding 30 days.