

An exhibition of paintings by Sandra Vucicevic opened in the premises of the Consulate General of the Republic of Serbia in New York, on 5 September, in the presence of a large number of visitors. The event is entitled "Abstract Space" and comprises paintings made by applying a mixed technique on canvas.

Sandra Vucicevic graduated from the Belgrade Faculty of Law and earned a degree in painting at Hunter College in New York, where she has been living since 2005. During the evening, visitors had the opportunity to take part in the performance called "The creation of a collective artist," leaving their brush strokes on canvas and thus creating a joint painting.

The exhibition will be open until 20 September.
