

Accordionist Misko the Blonde has a concert at Serbian Embassy in Tokyo

Friday, 20 September 2013.

A concert of our famous accordionist and composer of film music, Misko the Blonde, was organized thanks to the joint efforts of the Serbia-Japan Friendship Association and the Serbian Embassy, on the Embassy premises, on 20 September 2013.

The concert was opened by A. Jamanobe, a member of the Association, and N. Grbic, Chargé d' Affaires. The event, which was the prelude to the Japanese tour of our musician, was attended by about 50 guests, mostly Japanese friends of our country. Among those present, there were representatives of the Association management, as well as Madame E. Cunozaki, wife of former Japanese Ambassador to Serbia, T. Cunozaki.

Misko the Blonde, a musician who has been performing in Japan with great success for 13 years already, accompanied by young Japanese musicians from a reputable Toho University performed a number of traditional Japanese and Serbian compositions. The musical part of the program was followed by a cocktail reception.
