

Opening of the "Itinerarium Romanum Serbiae" Exhibition in Paraguay

Tuesday, 22 December 2015.

The exhibition "Itinerarium Romanum Serbiae" was inaugurated at the "El Cabildo" Cultural Centre, in Asunción, on 17 December, in the presence of many Paraguayan officials, including Minister of Culture, Mabel Causarano. Ms Margarita Morselli, Director of the "El Cabildo" Cultural Centre, Prof Dr Miomir Korac, Head of the Institute of Archaeology of the Republic of Serbia, Mr Jose Zanardini, President of the Centre for Anthropological Studies of the Catholic University, Ms Antonella Cavallari, Italy's Ambassador to Paraguay, as well as Ms Tatjana Conic, Chargé d'Affaires a.i. of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Buenos Aires took this opportunity to address the audience. On this occasion, Dr Miomir Korac, archaeologists Angelina Raickovic, Mladen Jovicic and Ilija Dankovic, as well as Ms Tatjana Conic, Chargé d'Affaires a.i. of our diplomatic-consular mission in Buenos Aires were granted special recognition awards "Bicentenario" for their contribution to advancing cultural relations between the Republic of Serbia and Paraguay.