

On 22 October 2016, the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Madrid and the Spanish National Museum of Anthropology co-hosted an event on the premises of the museum featuring for the second time in a row music originating from Dragacevo, performed by a local brass band "The Balkan Entertainment".

The performance took place as part of the exhibition "Balkaneros, the Guča Trumpet Festival (Serbia)", being one of the numerous cultural events commemorating the centenary of establishing Serbia's diplomatic mission in Spain. Over 250 attendees danced to the rhythms of Serbian music, while many children took part in this half-hour, interactive event, in the museum's lobby.
