

In a post on his Twitter account Prime Minister of Bhutan Tshering Tobgay expressed his pleasure at the response of Serbian Ambassador Vladimir Maric to his plea for help and support to basketball in Bhutan.

In late September, Serbian basketball coach Milan Opacic held a three-day training camp for ten coaches, three of whom were women, which took place in Bhutan's capital, Thimphu, during a visit co-organized by the Serbian Embassy in New Delhi and the Basketball Federation of Serbia. The trainings received great attention by the local public.

"A year ago I asked Ambassador Vladimir Maric of Serbia for support in developing basketball in Bhutan. He agreed. Today he briefed me about the basketball training camp that a Serbian coach conducted in Thimphu, and about plans to train our coaches, our children and, later, our national team in Serbia. With inspiration and motivation, and now with the world champs as our partners, who knows how far Bhutanese basketball will go? The sky is the limit", said Prime Minister Tobgay in a Facebook post.

Tshering Tobgay ✓

September 29 at 8:49am · 🌐

A year ago I requested Ambassador Vladimir Marić of Serbia for support in developing basketball in Bhutan. He agreed.

Today he briefed me about the basketball training camp that Serbian coach conducted in Thimphu, and about plans to train our coaches, our children and, later, our national team in Serbia.

With inspiration and motivation, and now with the world champs as our partners, who knows how far Bhutanese basketball will go? The possibilities are endless.

Following a three-day training in theory and practice, coach Milan Opacic said that he would pick several coaches for training in Belgrade.

His Excellency the Prime Minister of the Government of Bhutan, Lotay Tenzin Dorji, is seen interacting with the members of the Serbian Basketball Federation during a meeting held at the Thimphu Sports Complex on September 29, 2017.