

Florence: A school of Serbian language for children opens its doors

Saturday, 11 November 2017.

---

A school of Serbian language for children aged 5-10 has been launched in Florence, at the initiative and with sponsorship of the Serbian Embassy in Rome and the Honorary Consul of the Republic of Serbia in Florence, co-organized by the "Singidunum" Serbian diaspora association and "Start Art Projects".

The first workshop was held on 11 November. In addition to children of Serbian descent, their peers from China, Italy, Albania, Slovenia and Germany also took part. It is planned to hold classes on a monthly basis in the coming period, between November and June.
