

Serbian Ambassador to India Vladimir Maric gave an interview for the January edition of "Shubh yatra", the in-flight monthly of the Indian national airline Air India, in which he spoke about the similarities between the two peoples, and also, now that Serbia has abolished visa requirements for Indian nationals, the sights to be seen in our country. The interview will be available to passengers on all flights of the Indian airline. It is available on the link here .