

London: A Book Night and a Harp Concert at the Embassy

Tuesday, 20 February 2018.

---

The traditional cooperation between the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in London and organizers of the "Serbian Cultural Month" – members of the Serbian diaspora in Britain, continues this year with the organization of a Book Night and a concert on the Embassy premises.

On 9 February, the guests attended the presentation of literary works by Serbian writer Maja Herman Sekulic. The writer was interviewed by Sonja Bosford, the President of the Association of Serbian Writers and Artists Abroad, while excerpts from the book "Ma Belle" were read by Vesna Stanojevic.

Mejda Zarejan, a pianist, followed by the use of Poulenc's and Debussy's "Miroirs" and "Joy" Music, Sarah B. Kinkaid