

Two Serbian artists – Natasa Veljkovic, piano, and Milica Zulus, violin, gave a concert in Mechelen on 18 March, with the support of the Embassy of Serbia in Belgium. The concert was made possible by association "Amazing Haydn" of Mechelen and the Cultural Centre of Austria. Ambassador of Serbia Marina Jovicevic, Mayor of Mechelen Bart Somers and Cultural Secretary of the city Bjorn Siefer were in attendance.

Pianist Natasa Veljkovic, a recipient of many prestigious awards and her daughter Milica Zulus performed works of famous classical composers.

Natasa Veljkovic has lived in Vienna for the past two and a half decades. She performed with many orchestras and conductors and participated in festivals in Montreux, Berlin, Chopin Festival in Poland, MIDEM festival in Cannes as well as in the Haydn Festival in Eisenstadt.