

Tunisia: Serbian Film “Requiem for Mrs. J” screened at the Week of the Francophonie Film
Monday, 02 April 2018.

Serbian Oscar nominee, a film by Bojan Vuletic "Requiem for Mrs. J" was screened in Cité de la Culture, a cultural centre in Tunis, during the Week of the Francophonie Film, an event celebrating the Month of La Francophonie in Tunisia.

The screening was enabled by the Embassy of Serbia in Tunis in cooperation with the Film Centre Serbia and "Soul Food" company. In addition to film fans, the guests included representatives of the diplomatic corps and diaspora.