

"Serbian songs" by Milica Lazovic, the soprano and the pianist, were presented at the Embassy of Serbia in Berlin, on 25 April. The edition featuring pieces of Serbian vocal music of 19th and 20th centuries was released by the German producer "Murica Classics", with the support of the Embassy and the Ministry of Culture of Serbia.

The compact disc includes the works of composers Josif Marinkovic, Miloje Milojevic, Kosta Manojlovic, Stevan Hristic and others. The audience had the opportunity to hear 7 songs, while Milica Lazovic was accompanied by Ivon Gesler on the piano.

Publishing of "Serbian songs" contributes to the promotion of the Serbian culture in Germany. Serbian artist Milica Lazovic, who lives in Berlin, presented this edition also in Paris, at the Serbian Cultural Center.
