

The Consulate General of Serbia in Hamburg was open, in the night of 15 May, to the visitors of the Long Night of Consulates, an event of the Europe Week celebrated in May every year under the sponsorship of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg. This is the sixth time that the Serbian Consulate has taken part in the event, along with 29 other consulates, 4 cultural and information institutions and the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.

Those who visited the Serbian Consulate General had the opportunity to watch video presentations of the tourist offer of Serbia, to taste Serbian national dishes and to see the traditional Serbian dance performed by the folk group "Mladost" from Hamburg.

Consulate in Serbia at the Hamburg Long Night of Consulates. Photo by Tara on Instagram.