

Exhibition of photographs by Branka Takahashi, entitled "Sleepless in Russia", taken during her stay in Vladivostok, was displayed at the "Steps" gallery, in the Tokyo Ginza district, from 4 to 9 June.

Ambassador of Serbia to Japan Nenad Glisic spoke at the opening of the exhibition, thanking the Gallery owner Masami Joshioki for strengthening the cultural cooperation between Serbia and Japan. He also thanked the attendees for their unselfish support to our artists in Japan, including the former Ambassador of Japan to Serbia Toshio Tsunozaki and his wife Etsuko Tsunozaki, who also chairs the Association for Music Cooperation between Japan and Serbia. Ms. Branka Takahashi voiced her pleasure at being given the opportunity to stage her works at the "Steps" gallery and expressed gratitude to Ambassador Glisic and the Embassy for their support.
